MAYSVILLE, THURSDAY, APRIL 16 See the article copied from the Louisville Democrat, developing a new system of slavery to take place of the old, devised by Yankee cunning. The new system is infinitely more oppressive and grinding than the old. But it promises "to pay." There is money in it; and that is enough to sanctify it in the eyes of Yankee Puritans, the moral, bumane, philanthropic christians, who thank God on the street corners that they are better than other men. We never doubted that the object of the war was the abolition of slavery; even at the expense of destroying the Union, nor that at least a large portion of Yankeedom looked to abolition as a process by which they would succeed to the titles of the dispossessed original slaveholders; and this document establishes both grounds of our conviction.

THE WAR NEWS.

The events of the last week have been stirring and some of them important. The negro brigade under command of Col. Montgomery, are reported to have captured the towns of Pilatka and Jackson, burning the latter, in Florida; but another report has it that the brigade retreated from the State without effecting any results. Two Federal transports on the Cumberland, above Clarks. ville, have been captured and destroyed .-A Federal gunboat (the Diana) was captured in a bayou of the Mississippi, below Port acts of the Executive, is himself disloyal Hudson, and another on the Rio Grande .-A portion of the rebel forces violated the neutrel rights of Mexico by crossing into her territory and were pursued by Federal forces. Van Dorn's division of Bragg's army, 12,-000 strong, attacked Granger's division of Rosecrans' army at Franklin Tennessee, and after a pretty severe fight were repulsed with a reported loss of 300, against 100 Federal loss. The rebels destroyed the track and a railroad train between Nashville and Chattanooga, and also another on the our country, will be tried as spies or traitors, Nashville and Louisville road. Gen. Foster's command of 2,000 men in North Carolina, being surrounded by an immense force and short of provisions and the roads being impracticable foreceiving speedy reinforcements, was in a position of great peril. A rumor at Fortress Monroe reported his surrender, but this lacks confirmation. The operations before Charleston, however, are the most interesting of the week. The Federal fleet, embracing a number of iron clad Monitors, gunboats, and other vessels protect, conceal, feed, clothe or in any way entered the harbor and came in range of Forts Sumpter and Moultrie, when a terrific cannonading ensued on both sides. The Department. The Federal land tolerated in this department. forces did not co-operate in the fight, but are said to be working their way to a point in the rear of Charleston, which, if gained, will no doubt be the signal for a combined land and sea assault upon Charleston and its defenses. The loss of life on either side in the naval attack on the forts was slight. The firing on both sides is reported to have vessels were hit many times, and they in turn pierced eleven holes through the walls North, and of the "traitors in our midst." of Sumpter. The rebels have also since that Fernando responds: fight destroyed another Federal armed vessel on the Coosaw river below Charleston .-Rumors are published of fighting near Yorkno particulars are given. No new movement yet upon Vicksburg, and indeed an impression prevails in some quarters, but we know not on what foundation, that Grant has abandoned or is about to abandon the siege in the present form of it, move his army so as to form a junction with Rosecrans and with the two armies combined, march to the assault of Vicksburg in the rear. Nothing important from the opposing armies on the Rappahannock.

Money.

The market for Gold in the last week fluctuated violently, under the conflicting reports in regard to the attempt to capture Charleston and closed feverish and unsettled. The following is the course of the N. York market each day during the week: Tuesday it opened at 1521, and closed heavy at 150%; Wednesday it opened at 1482, declined to 1443 and closed firm at 1471@1473; Thursday it opened at 146, advanced to 1484, and subsequently declined to 14734; Friday it opened at 147, declined to 1451, and closed firm at 1491@1491; Saturday it opened at 153, declined to 1501, and closed feverish at 1531@1531. The advices received at noon Monday, report it having opened at 155, and advancing to 156, and the market very much excited; and the tendency was still upwards. LOYALTY.

lawyer in New England, late a Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, recently delivered a speech before a Democratic Club in New York, of extraordinary ability, in which he defines and expounds what are the conditions of loyalty. The definition is substantially and simply, obedience to law; and is deduced from two clear provisions of the Constitution, one declaring that this Constitution and all laws made in pursuance thereof, shall be the supreme law of the land; and the other declaring the rebels in arms submit to National authat all powers not granted to the Federal government in the Constitution, are reserved to the States and the people respectively. He argues, thence, that loyalty consists in obedience to the constitution and constitutional laws; but that it is not disloyal to oppose Federal laws which violate the constitution or which encroach on the reserved rights of the States and the people. He holds that those reserve rights, not granted to the Federal government, are as much the supreme law of the land as the constitution itself; and of course he rejects the doctrine, which is now attempted to be practically enforced, that State rights are inferior and subordinate to those of the Federal government. He spurns the idea that the Administration is the government, and spits on the servile spirit which denies to the citizen or the press the right freely to examine the acts of government, for the purpose of condeming as well as approving according to their judgment. The truth is, the citizen who fails to condemn and oppose unconstitutional and unlawful and derelict. We advise every reader to procure Judge Curtis' speech, for it is one of the most profound expositions which the lion. times have called out.

It is undeniably true that we have been the recipients of the choicest blessings of Heaven for many years; we have enjoyed peace and prosperity unbounded; and until sectionalism succeeded in dethroning the order of things we were the most prosperous people on the earth; and it is well and proper that in the hour of trouble the vain and intoxicated should be humbled .- Logan Gazette.

We are glad that Massachusetts had one ed with Gen. Milroy's letter in relation to GRAIN, GROCERY man of common sense in the last Congress. the action of the Democratic members of GRAIN, GROCERY Judge Thomas, though a republican fre- the late Legislature of Indians, Here is quently gives utterance to reasonable and the closing paragraph of the letter: soldier bill:

It provides for the enlistment of men for a period of five years. Why five years? I thick there is more significance in that word "five" in this bill than in all other words written in it. Its possible objects are net written. Do you mean to say to the country that it is your expectation, your reasonable expectation, and the basis on which you propose to make enlistments for your army, that this war is to continue for a period of five years longer? Do you mean to say to the country that on this vest scale on which the war is prosecuted, and at the expense of treasure and life at which it is prosecuted, you expect to carry it on for five years more? If such be your expectation, it is just and manly to say so. It such he not your expectation, pray add nothing to the anxiety and alarm of the people.

Mr. Speaker, if the object of this war is restoration, that involves a state of things, present or future, which will soon be developed and felt. A war for restoration proceeds upon the ground that you will find in the rebel States, as your army advances and protection is made possible, men who are ready to rally again under the blessed flag of the Union and to return to their allegiance to the national Gevernment. If that feeling exists and is developed, certainly it will be developed before the lapse of five years; never indeed, by this instrumentality, never. But if the object of this war is not restoration; if the purpose and object of this war are as is sometimes declared in the heated and brilliant rhetoric gentlemen on your left-subjugation, extermination, the re-colonization of the whole rebel territory, then your term of enlistment is altogether too short-altogether too short.

If, Mr. Speaker, the object be extermination, there is not one of these pages, snatched prematurely from his mothers arms or cradle, who will live to see the end. You have been waging the war two years, and yet the number of inhabitants in the rebel States to-day is larger than it was when the war begun. You cannot, probably, if you The War Committee and Foreign War. would, and you would not if you could, carry on a war with fierceness and severity that would destroy life as rapidly as it ger-minates: 10 Men, in war even, will marry and women be given in marriage; children will be born to them, and their mothers will hold them to their flowing breasts as the storms sweeps by. The angel of life will triumph over the angel of death. Such is the blessed economy of God. The extermination of eight millions of people, with the use of all our power and all our resources, is a moral and physical impossibility. Of this war, it it is carried on for extermination, neither you nor I, Mr. Speaker, may hope to see its close but in one way, to us the way of deepest humiliation; the latervention of talks of a war of extermination is simply

Elect Lincoln.

Elect Lincoln and we shall have a good time. Elect Lincoln and there shall be plenty of work and high wages. Elect Lincoln, and the expenses of the Government will be reduced. Elect Lipcoln and there shall be plenty of money. Elect Lincoln and we will have honesty and reform .-Elect Lincoln, and we will bring the Government back to the policy of our lathers. Line coln was elected, and instead of economy and reform we have had stealing and who is ale plunder, unheard of in any age of the world, Lincoln was elected, and instead of coming to any policy of our fathers, we are coming to taxation, national bankruptcy and upmistakeable ruin. We have Republican testimony to this effect:

"I do not know but I may overestimate the character of this transaction, (the Morgan contract) but I tell you, sir, I believe, and I declare it upon my responsibility as a Senator of the United States, that the liberties of this country are in greater danger to day, from the corruptions and profligacy Government, than they are from the open onemy in the field."- Senator Hale.

fessions of reform and retrenchment, there nothing in this doctrine either abject or seris indubitable evidence abroad in the land vile. that somebody has plundered the Public Treasury well-nigh in that single year as your moral sight is not of the clearest. For much as the current yearly expenses of the our part, we see in this doctrine nothing but Government during the Administration abjectness and servility, except, indeed, a which the people hurled from power because deadly hostility to the liberty and life of of its corruptions."-Dawes Report.

"The bill is utterly worthless. The Senate have deliberately voted that it desires the present state of things to go on, or that our Generals shall become demoralized by plunder; that thieves shall take possession of this vast amount of property, and divide it among themselves. They have deliberately voted from two to three hundred million dollars out of the Treasury of the United States and into the hands of these thieves and robbers, Now, sir, I move to lay the bill on the table. It is utterly worthless, and I hope it will be laid on the table." - Senator Chandler's (of Michigan) speech on the Bill for the Collection of Abard med Pro perty in Insurrectionary Districts.

A visitor to one of the midland towns of Arkansas, after inquiring very particularly of a prominent citizen about the health of the place, continued his interogatories by asking: Docter, what kind of water is mo tly us-

Is it good?

Those who use it, replied the doctor, say it's first-rate. I use whisky.

If there is any body in Kentucky who comprehends and yet approves the doctrine, he has abandoned the Union party, and has gone over to the fraternity that voted for Mr. Lincoln in Kentucky, as our neighbor of the Democrat has abandoned the Union party, and has gone over to the party that voted for John C.
